i. History of the Institution

With the explosion of media and information spreading technology, the teaching techniques have undergone rapid changes. Besides, the schooling age and period is reduced, for which proper training has become indispensable to handle the well informed pupils. To mitigate the social needs, in order to fill up the gaps of trained teachers and at the same time to provide training facilities to ever growing number of graduates, a vociferous demand for such training facilities was built up in this part of the city.

In response to the demand of Pandu-Maligaon, Jalukbari, Dharapur, Tetelia, Baragaon, Gotanagar and entire western part of the city this West Guwahati College of Education, in 1992 was established with the relentless efforts of a few devoted academicians Accordingly, a Sponsoring Body headed by Dr. M. Barthakur, M.A., B.Sc.(Hons), Ph.D., Retd. Professor of Gauhati University and Sri Sreemanta Sarker, M.A., B.Ed., the Principal of Bidyamandir H.S. School as Secretary was formed on 1st April, 1992 to initiate the move for establishing a College of Education i.e., B.Ed. College at Pandu, with permission from Gauhati University. The Sponsoring Body was later on expanded by co-opting other members having selfless love for education and wide experience in socio-administrative activities.

Institution of Krishna Kanta Handique State Open University (KKHSOU) Study Centre came into force due to the tireless effort carried out by Prof. Dr.Minadhar Barthakur, President, WGCE, , WGCE and Mrs Gitanjali Choudhury , Principal, WGCE.

In the recent years the demand for trained teachers has considerably increased. Due to lack of trained teachers, the State Government deputed teachers for in-service training to limited number of B.T. or B.Ed. degree compulsory for recruitment of teachers. Similarly the state government also prefers trained teachers for appointment in the schools and very likely it will make it statutory requirement for a qualified teacher. Gauhati University abolished the B.T. Department and the existing teachers training colleges failed to meet the demand of ever-growing schools in the nook and corner of the state. As a result, there was a pressing need for a teachers training college in the western part of the city of Guwahati.

In the year 2008, West Guwahati College of Education has instituted KKHSOU Stuy Centre which caters to the need of the educationally deprived individuals from various walks of life introducing BPP and BA courses.

The Managing Committee of the Bidyamandir H.S. School of which Sri Sarker was the Secretary was magnanimous enough to permit the Sponsoring Body to start the College in its premises. The efforts of the Sponsoring Body were ultimately crowned with success when "West Guwahati College of Education" (WGCE) was formally inaugurated on the 1st April, 1992 in the premises of Bidyamandir H.S. School, Rest Camp, Pandu, Guwahati-12. It will be unfair if the names of two veteran academicians whose personal efforts and contributions have laid the solid foundation of the College are not mentioned in this context. They are late B.K.Nath, M.Sc.; M.S.(USA) and Mrs. Kamana Barowa, M.A.; B.Ed. Along with the Secretary Sri Sarker, late Mr. Nath as the founder Principal gave the academic shape of the institution by his selfless dedication and Mrs. Kamana Barowa as an experienced teacher organized the academic and cocurricular activities. Large number of students from different parts of the city and the state as a whole were attracted and consequently there had been increasing rush for admission in the College. Since 1992, the College has been efficiently functioning and by 2006, it has trained more than 1000 graduates and post graduates to become qualified teachers. The statistics given ,testify the creditability of the College. KKSHOU Study Centre came into existence since 5th April 2008.

ii. Vision Statement

West Guwahati College of Education aims to "Shower the Amrit of Knowledge".

iii. Mission and Objectives

The main focus of the institution is to grow professionalism and commitment among the student-trainees who are going to be a teacher in future. Its prime aim is to be leader in the area as a teacher institution maintaining high values and collaborative attitude among student trainees.

The objectives of secondary teacher education enunciated by the NCTE in its "Curriculum Framework for Quality Education" (1998) are to :

- Enable the prospective teachers to understand the nature, purpose and philosophy of secondary education
- Develop among teachers an understanding of the psychology of their pupils
- Enable them to understand the process of socialization
- Equip them to acquire competencies relevant to stage - specific pedagogy, curriculum development, its transaction and evaluation
- Enable them to make pedagogical analysis of the subject they are to teach at the Secondary stage
- Develop skills of guidance and counseling
- Enable them to foster creative thinking among pupils for reconstruction of knowledge
- Acquaint them with factors and forces affecting educational system and classroom situation
- Acquaint them with educational needs for special groups of pupils
- Enable them to utilize community resources as educational inputs
- Develop communication skills and use modern information technology for school purposes
- Develop aesthetic sensibilities
- Acquaint them with research in education, including action research
